FOUR GENERATIONS AT VICTORIA.

Saddle bags across his pony—
Eyes a-twinkle, cheeks a-glow, Grandsire fared him forth to College.
Just ninety years ago

In the sixties our two fathers—Doctor, preacher, they would be,
Came to learn at old Victoria
The truth that made them free.

Cycling was a gay diversion
After lecture hours were done,
When Ed. and I were constant pals
In good old "Naughty-one"

Loyal to her best traditions
Since College first began.

Now, the younger generation Keeps the "scarlet in the van."

For you I wish happiness and joy at Christmas

And every good thing in the coming year

Theo Pike,

May very happiness
be with you this Christmas and in the coming year

Dear Mrs. Nasmith

We think of you often especially at the Christmas season.

This is a sketch of our new home at 471 Prospect Circle South Pasadena.

Be sure to look us up when you come to California.

Did you write your story about Aspen? Should love to read it

Mr. Herbert Augustus Wilcox.
